Phuket, Thailand

Internship Opportunity - 2018

The Australian Consulate-General Phuket invites applications from final-year university students or recent graduates based in Phuket to undertake a three month internship at the Consulate-General.

The internship provides an opportunity to gain valuable work experience and develop skills and knowledge that will help in future career endeavours. And it allows those with an interest in international relations to gain a unique insight into the work of the Consulate-General.

The internship will commence in November or December 2018 for a period of three (3) months. Due to the nature of the work and projects that will be assigned, applicants must be available for the entire three month period. The successful applicant will be required to undergo background security checks prior to commencing. A strong working knowledge of both English and Thai language is essential and the ability to work in a small team is a must.

INTERESTED?

Please send us a short email explaining why you are interested and how you would be suitable. Together with this short statement, please attach your CV and send to consular.phuket@dfat.gov.au by Friday 28 September 2018.

Interviews will be conducted with short-listed candidates in the first week of October and a final decision will be made by the second week of October 2018.
